

The International College of Neuro-Psychopharmacology

PART THREE

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

INTRODUCTION

An essential prerequisite of neuropsychopharmacology is dialogue between clinicians and basic scientists.

The CINP was founded to create a forum for this interaction; it was first proposed at the International Symposium on Psychotropic Drugs organized by the University of Milan in May, 1957.

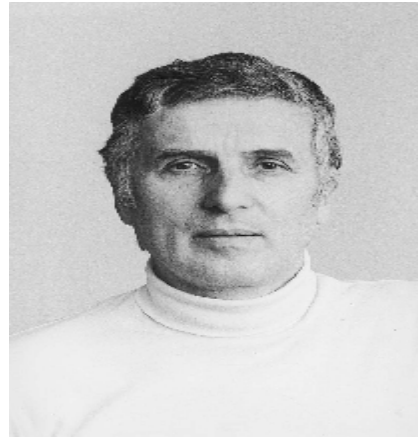

The pioneers who participated in this process are identified below.

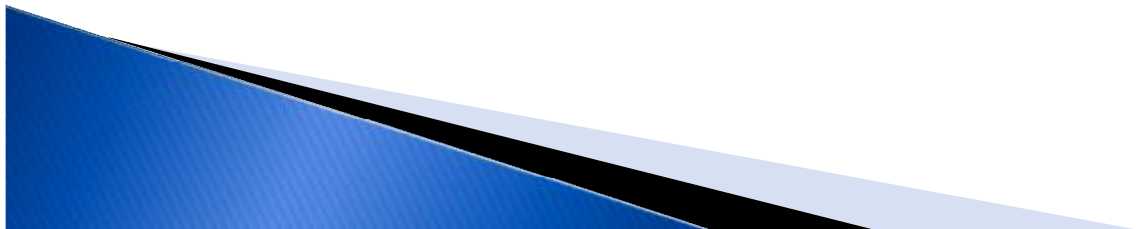

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

SILVIO GARATTINI

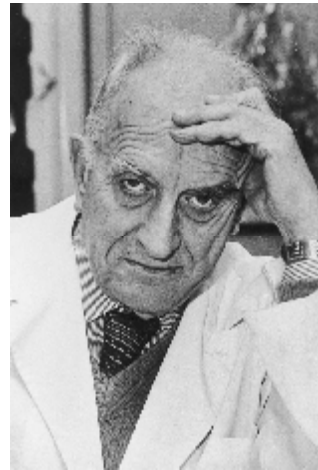

An Italian pharmacologist in the Department of Pharmacology, University of Milan, who organized the International Symposium on Psychotropic Drugs where the founding of the CINP was proposed.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

EMILIO TRABUCCHI

CINP Founder

Professor and Head of the Department of Pharmacology, University of Milan, who chaired the International Symposium on Psychotropic Drugs where the founding of the CINP was proposed. He was chairman of the organizing committee for the First CINP Congress in Rome, 1958.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

WOLFGANG De BOOR

Secretary CINP, 1960-1962

A German psychiatrist, author of a 1956 monograph on Psychopharmacology and Psychopathology, who at the Milan Symposium, proposed the founding of an international society that became the CINP.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

CORNEILLE RADOUCO-THOMAS

CINP Founder and Secretary, 1957-1960

Rumanian born pharmacologist, working in Geneva, who also, independently, proposed an international society and suggested the name, Collegium Internationale Neuro-Psychopharmacologicum, (CINP).

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

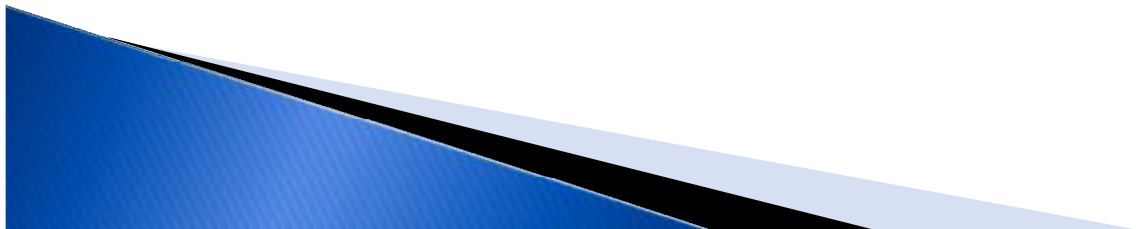

1957

ERNST ROTHLIN

CINP Founder and President, 1957-1960

Swiss physician and pharmacologist, Director of Sandoz, who was the first President of the CINP, elected at the founding of the organization on September 2, 1957 in Zurich.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

JEAN DELAY

CINP Founding Vice President, 1957-1958 and President, 1964-1966

French psychiatrist and Professor of Psychiatry, University of Paris.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

PAUL H. HOCH

CINP Founding Vice President, 1957-1958 and President, 1960-1962

Hungarian born, American psychiatrist, Commissioner of Mental Health, New York State.

THE HISTORY OF THE CINP

1957

HANS HOFF

CINP Founding Vice President, 1957-1958 and President, 1962-1964

Austrian psychiatrist, Professor of Psychiatry, University of Vienna.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

MICHAEL D. SHEPHERD

CINP Founding Vice President, 1957- 1958

British psychiatrist, Professor of Psychiatry at the Maudsley Hospital, University of London.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

HERMAN C. DENBER

CINP Founder and Secretary, 1957-1960

American Psychiatrist, Director of Research at Manhattan State Hospital, New York.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

WERNER A. STOLL

CINP Founder and Treasurer, 1957-1960

Swiss psychiatrist, assistant to Manfred Bleuler at the Burgholzli Psychiatric Clinic in Zurich.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

PHILIP B. BRADLEY

CINP Founder, First Councillor, 1957 – 1962 and Treasurer, 1964 – 1972

English neuropharmacologist, Acting Head, Department of Experimental Psychiatry, University of Birmingham.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP

1957

PIERRE DENIKER

Founder, First Councillor 1957 – 1964, Secretary 1964 – 1970 and President 1974 -1976

French psychiatrist, assistant to Jean Delay, St.Anne's Hospital, Paris.

THE FOUNDING OF THE CINP
1957

COMMENTARY

With the first psychotropic drugs in clinical use, basic methodology in neuropharmacology established and the CINP inaugurated, the prerequisites for the evolution of neuropsychopharmacology were in place.

CINP would like to thank Dr Tom Ban and Dr Barry Blackwell for creating this informative set of slides. We hope you have enjoyed this brief overview. For more information on the history of CINP please go to www.cinp.org

Acknowledgment: We would like to thank Mrs Gill Moore, CINP Executive Secretary, for transforming this photo history into a power point presentation.