

CINP 33rd World Congress Student Encouragement Award

This award is to encourage PhD students globally to participate in and experience our Congress. The applicants must be a PhD student, submit abstract for oral or poster presentation and register for the Congress. A maximum of ten awardees will be selected. This Award will consist of a monetary award of USD 200 and a commemorative certificate.

Guidelines:

- The applicant should be a PhD student/postgraduate student.
- Applicants must register and pay for the Congress prior to submitting an application.
- The applicant must commit to attendance at the 2022 CINP World Congress for all three days if receiving the award.
- An abstract that should be submitted via the congress website.

To apply, the following application materials must be submitted by email in English by Wednesday, April 27, 2022, to info@cinp.org.

- 1) A short-typewritten statement of the reason why the applicant wishes to be considered for the student award (use the box below)
- 2) A copy of student identification
- 3) Submitted abstract (here)
- 4) A copy of the congress registration fee receipt
- 5) This completed form

Full name of applicant: _____

Affiliation: _____ Grade: _____

Name of Supervisor: _____

Address: _____

_____ Country: _____

Tel: _____ Date of Birth: _____

E-mail: _____

Short Typewritten Statement

Date: _____ Applicant's Signature: _____