

Message from the President

Dear colleagues,

With the launch of the CINP YouTube channel last month, we have added another platform to share highly scientific knowledge with our community. We have just added the second video by our Past President Prof. John H. Krystal about 'Rapid Acting Antidepressants'. Also, do not forget to subscribe to our channel to not miss any videos in the future!

The next step to further digitalize the college comes with the new CINP App which you can now download in store by searching for 'CINP'. CINP

Members also have the advantage to login with the same account as on the CINP homepage.

We also have two important upcoming deadlines related to the 2019 International Meeting next month.

- Abstract Submission Deadline - June 14, 2019 (23:59 CET)
- Rafaelsen Young Investigators Award - June 14, 2019 (23:59 CET)
- Early Registration Deadline - June 21, 2019 (23:59 CET)

I am also pleased to announce that the meeting has been granted 20 CME credits by The European Accreditation Committee in CNS (EACIC).

Furthermore, we will be finalizing the destinations of the annual CINP World Congress 2021-2025 next month and are excited to share these news with you.

Last but not least, the International Journal of Neuropsychopharmacology (IJNP) is on the search for a new Editor-in-Chief starting with the handover from Prof. Alan Frazer at the 2020 CINP World Congress \(June 25-28) in Taipei, Taiwan. You can now send your application for this exciting position to the CINP Head Office and find more information on our homepage.

For any further questions, please send an email to the CINP Head Office.

With kind regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Kasper', with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Prof. Siegfried Kasper
CINP President